ECHOES OF WINTER

In the middle of winter's harshness, great talents and big hearts are uniting once again for a worthy cause. The Ottawa and Kanata Music Academies are proud to present the 4th annual Echoes of Winter. This is a fundraising event in support of the Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario, an organization that we all cherish.

With a new format and tremendous support from all our guest performance groups and the community, we are hoping to surpass our results from previous years. The Echoes of Winter 2006 is guaranteed to be a fun-filled family event which will be held at Carleton University Alumni Theatre on Sunday, February 26, 2006 with a family fun fair from 2:00—3:30 p.m. , followed by a musical variety show until 5:30 p.m. We are looking forward to an afternoon jam-packed with entertainment. Admission is $4.00 in advance, $5.00 at the door with a chance to win a door prize draw of a pair of Senator's home game tickets. Admission tickets are on sale now at both Kanata and Ottawa Music Academies. Please come and join us for this wonderful event.

Our Fun Fair Will Include: beanbag toss, pop the balloon draw, mask making and face painting, jellybean guess, 50/50 draw and many more activities guaranteed to keep everyone smiling. We are also having several raffle draws for prizes being donated by our sponsors and supporters. Make sure to buy a draw ticket for a sensational guitar package which is donated by the Kanata and Ottawa Music Academies. For those with a sweet tooth, there will be a bake sale with a grand array of treats sure to satisfy any snack cravings.

This showcase promises to be brimming with unique combinations of talent including music, rhythm and dance all collaborating for the higher cause of helping out the community. This year, we are delighted to have numerous great performance groups showcasing their talents and skills along with the Kanata and Ottawa Music Academies's students. They are: Kanata Ballet School, Kanata Rhythmic Sportive Gymnastic Club, Kanata Theatre and St. Rita Italian Dance Group "Ruscello Limpido". The Kanata Theatre will present a thrilling production titled "Dragonslayers", separated into two episodes: "Making a Dragon" and "Revenge". Accompanying the play will be the impressive lyrical ingenuity accredited to Bruce Coville and the stirring musical compositions of Angel Peterson. Featured in the first episode will be the Kanata Ballet School, who will continue to dazzle with their own dances, "Masquerade" and "Aladdin". The amazing gymnasts from the Kanata Rhythmic Sportive Gymnastics Club will demonstrate their skills combining gymnastics skills along with various hand held apparatus, ribbons, balls and hoops, in two graceful routines. We have the St. Rita Dance Group presenting traditional Italian Dance with beautiful Italian costumes. From the Kanata and Ottawa Music Academies, our very own teachers and students have organizes numerous selections. Tracey Stabback will head our vocal performance teams, the "Music is Fun Group" and the OKMA Community Children's Chorus. The OKMA Band will be lead by Jordan Kawai, Eric Desson will conduct the Violin Group, Sabrina Tang, Vincent Mok and Andy Ng have arranged the "Piano 6 Hands" presentation. In conclusion of the days festivities, with music by Tracey Stabback and lyrics by Jon Payne, the OKMA theatre is pleased to share "Snowbound Dreams", an endearing musical play about CHEO.

Tracey Stabback will be taking part in an on air chat on radio with Doc and Woody about the Echoes of Winter fundraiser. Please listen for her on Chez 106 during the week of February 20th around 8:45 a.m. We are delighted to have CTV as one of our supporters this year. Additionally, a special thank you to Mr. Max Keeping for accepting our invitation to be the special guest speaker for the day.

On behalf of the organizing committee for the Echoes of Winter 2006, we thank you and are looking forward to seeing you there ...
